The DIRECTORY covers the whole of the ports and cities of the Far East, from Penang to SHERRIES. Vladivostock, in which are gathered sojourners from the West.

Not only is the Directory most full and complete in each case, but it is prefaced by DE. SCRIPTONS of each Colony, Port, or Settlement, carefully revised each year, some of which, such as those of Hongkong and Shanghai, will serve as perfect and accurate Guines for the Tourist, giving as they do every detail in connection with the places, their History and Topography, &c., &c.

The Information afforded in these Descriptions alone would suffice to fill an ordinary volume, consisting of over Eighty highly interesting articles, packed with facts concisely set out, and containing statistics of the TRADE of each Country and Pert.

Briefly this work is the Directory for-THE OPEN PORTS OF CHINA. OTHER PLACES IN CHINA WHERE

CANTON NOTES.

His Excellency Teeng Kai Ku, the Swatow Taotai who, it may be remembered, came South about a week ago to pay his New Year's compliments to the Viceroy, will shortly leave Canton again on his way back to Swatow. Teeng is a very able officer and since his arrival at Swatow some six months ago has done a great deal towards the improvement of the place and the preservation of good order. He is said to have at pre- Campbell, Moore & Co. sent under consideration the construction of a China Borneo railway connecting Chao-chao-fu with Swatow China Sugar and it is reported that he has decided to engage | Chinese Loan '84 C... the services of a foreign engineer to survey the Chinese Loan '86 E., Tls. 250 Tls. 27% route. This custom Tseng is said to have put an end to by ordering the tipsos of the various villages to remonstrate with the parents and making the latter responsible for the due faifilment by the girls of their obligations as wives. Again, some three months ago it came to the knowledge of Tanng that some nuns belonging to the various monasteries did not live altogether irreproachably. He therefore issued a notification to the effect that all young nons in these places should grow their hair again and be given back to their parents to be married. These are a few instances of measures by which this officer has earned for himself a favourable reputation amongst the population placed under his jurisdiction. Referring to the recently reported trouble at

One of them admitted having seized the box containing the Prefect's robes, while the statements of the five others are somewhat contradictory. The Magistrates have issued notification offering a reward of $100 per head for the arrest of the ridglesders, who it is expected will be brought to justice very soon On the 6th instant the residence of the family of a late Chao chao Commodore was broken into by agang of robbers. They were, however, unsuccess ful in their designs, as a servant belonging to the house gave the alarm by striking a gong and two of the robbers were promptly arrested, the Watson & Co., A. PEKING. -----FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.

21st January. The winter is passing quietly so far as foreigners are concerned. The most exciting social event has been the concert and variety entertain. ment given at the Russian Legation for the benefit of the famine-stricken peasantry in Russia. The music was very good, as Peking boasts some first-class artistes, who lent their willing aid to so benevolent an object, and the proceeds are said to have reached Tis. 3,100. As the estimated cost to the Russian Government is 800,000,000 roubles, the contribution from the and balance sheet for the half-year ending 31st will reduce the Government outlay to 799,994,000.

But private subscriptions in aid of a Government, unless they are on a gigantic scale like the contributions to the Volunteer fleet, do not come to the best use. The Chihli floods of 1890 The difference in exchange between 4/6, the rate at produced immonse contributions from all parts which the dividend is declared, and 3/1, the rate of of China, and the collection made by Li Hungchang was so large that expensive river conservancy works were constructed without calling on Government, and it is reported that the Great Vicercy has still a surplus of Tls.:1.000,000 besides immense stores of clothing left over from

I suspected the meaning of this move in an instant, and the guide's answers to my questions ratified my fears. One man, out of madness or thirst for revenge, had led the attack upon the American and a growd of fanatics had killed him-giving him no chance of retreat with his life, either by circumousion or the profession of Islam. But cooler heads tad already found time to think of the penalty of shedding Christian blood. That penalty was twofold: first, the penalty of disgrace which would come of the idea that the lives of thristians were not safe in Morocco, and next, the penalty of hard dollars to be paid to the American Minister at Tangier. To escupe from the double danger the cotrage was to be hushed up. Circumstances lent themrelyes to this artifice.
